DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. In view of all claims read on elected Species I (figures 1-5), at this point of prosecution, the election requirement has been withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US 4616431 (Dassler).

Dassler teaches a method of modifying a characteristic of a shoe sole (see detailed description) for an article of footwear as claimed including a discrete, vertically-projecting, columnar element (5) located between upper and lower surfaces (upper and lower surfaces of sole 3) of a cavity formed within said sole structure, a first insert member (6,7,8) and a second insert member (6,7,8, disc 6 comprising of different material and different cushioning characteristics – see col. 2, lines 20-22) attached by a securing mechanism (closing part 7 is screwed in place), a semi-rigid plate and outsole (2).

Conclusion

4. Applicant is duly reminded that a complete response must satisfy the requirements of 37 C.F. R. 1.111, including:

Art Unit: 3728

-“The reply must present arguments pointing out the specific distinctions believed to render the claims, including any newly presented claims, patentable over any applied references.”

--“A general allegation that the claims define a patentable invention without specifically pointing out how the language of the claims patentably distinguishes them from the references does not comply with the requirements of this section.”

-Moreover, “The prompt development of a clear issue requires that the replies of the applicant meet the objections to and rejections of the claims. Applicant should also specifically point out the support for any amendments made to the disclosure. See MPEP 2163.06” MPEP 714.02. The “disclosure” includes the claims, the specification and the drawings.
